AMHS is happy to announce another bus trip excursion, this time to:

New York City

We will visit the Italian American Museum located at 155 Mulberry Street in the heart of New York's "Little Italy". The museum was born on June 12, 2001 and serves as a point of reference for those who are Italian Americans and those who wish to learn about Italian Americans. We will also visit New York's other landmarks and in the evening we will join the Orsogna Club in Astoria for a lavish dinner dance, an evening of fellowship with our compatriots in the Big Apple.

Date: Saturday April 17, 2010

Time: Bus departs at 7:00 AM sharp, return at 1:30 AM (at night).

From: The Church of the Little Flower
 5607 Massachusetts Avenue
 Bethesda, MD 20816

Look for the BARON TOURS bus. Maestro Fusco will direct where to park.

Cost: $90.00 per person (seats limited, reserve early)

Cost includes:

- * Deluxe bus transportation
- * Entrance fee to the gardens
- * Dinner and dancing at the Orsogna Club in Astoria

Paid reservation by March 31. No refund after this date.

For information call: Bruno Fusco 301-654-5218, Nancy DeSanti 703- 837-3918
